

Illinois HomeCare & Hospice Council's
HELEN HEYRMAN AWARD

PREEMINENT LEADERSHIP IN HOME CARE and HOSPICE

Purpose: To recognize a leader who has made significant contributions toward the advancement of the Illinois home care industry through outstanding leadership and to recognize in perpetuity the leadership contributions of Helen Heyrman (1920-2014) to Illinois home care and hospice.

Criteria: The award will be given no more than annually during the twelve-month period beginning and ending with the Council's annual meeting. The award will not necessarily be given every year. The award can be given posthumously. Nominees need not be restricted to providers of home care in Illinois and could include state appointed officials, journalists, educators, etc. Legislators are not eligible.

Procedure for nomination: The candidate must be nominated by February 18, 2022 to be eligible to receive the award at the annual meeting. Nominations should include the following elements:

- Current curricula vitae of the candidate.
- A letter describing (to be prepared by the person nominating the candidate):
 - a. The contribution
 - b. The advancement of home care resulting from the contribution
 - c. The leadership characteristics evidenced by the contribution and resulting advancement
- Three signatures of support from IHHC members in different geographic areas.
(These signatures must be secured by nominator.)
